It is to inform that number of stalls allotted to each state will be restricted as per availability and will be informed in advance, soon after receipt of confirmation from the states. You are therefore requested to sponsor the SHG artisans to be adjusted on sharing basis i.e two SHG groups in one stall to be as per allotment given to your state. The accommodation will be provided according to the number of stalls allotted to the state.

As per the guidelines of the Ministry of Rural Development the traders and dealers should not be encouraged to participate or accompany the Swarojgaris and ensure to nominate the genuine SHGs. The SHG participants should be thoroughly scrutinised /certified strictly by the concerned Project Director DRDA of the district. The participation list to be furnished in the proforma above to be sent in Original either with the State coordinator or with the participant duly attested with office seal. Xerox copies will not be entertained.

The arrangements for accommodation and local transportation to the participants will be made by this department. Please nominate One State Coordinator along with the participants from your state. The confirmation and details to reach this office by 20th September 2015, through soft copy by email: directorlivelihoodsap@gmail.com, to enable to make preparatory arrangements to the participants.
